

1. "Integration beyond borders" is an informal network of cooperation between Polish and Georgian NGOs.
2. To be a network member is a willingness to cooperate with at least one of the following areas.
3. The subject of cooperation are:
 - Creation of sports and tourism initiatives
 - Activities for young people, especially the disabled
 - Support for the development of the third sector
 - A joint application for funds
 - Exchange of experience
 - Promotion of Polish and Georgian culture, traditions and natural resources, wildlife
 - Joint implementation of the projects
4. The formula of the initiative "Integration beyond the borders" is open to accepting new members
5. Accepted a simple procedure for the reception of new members to the network:
 - by sending attached form to the Leader of the network, Viribus Unitis Foundation
 - positive recommendation of two existing members of the network
 - signing declaration of cooperation
6. The network can evolve into a federation or union of associations
7. Supporting the network is voluntary and free of charge.
8. The members of the network are not collected membership fees